

Year 11 work to be completed at home

1. Islam Beliefs and Teachings – The Nature of God

Read Pages 12 & 13 of the attached textbook pages

2. Create key cards for the following words:

- Immanent
- Transcendent
- Omnipotent
- Beneficent
- Merciful
- Fairness
- Justice/Adalat

3. Complete all activities on page 13 including the summary.

Consider: Question 3 asks you to “evaluate” a statement - your response should be detailed enough to meet that criteria.

Challenge/Extension:

Research the 99 names of God (Allah) and take notes on what you notice about his names.

Deeper Learning

1. If possible - Listen to GCSE pod episodes on Islam beliefs: Episode 5 (The nature of god) and episode 6 (Different ideas about god...)

2. Three names of Allah:
 - Ar-Rahman (The all-compassionate)
 - Ar-Rahim (The all-merciful)
 - Ar-Razzaq (The sustainer)What do these three specific qualities infer about the nature of Allah?

Task

1. What do the 99 names of Allah infer to Muslims about Allah and his power?

2. Choose several of the 99 names (minimum 10) and create a poster/powerpoint presentation explaining in detail what your chosen names tell us about the qualities and nature of Allah.

Interleaving

Answer the following 12 mark questions

1. “The best way of understanding God is to describe God as transcendent.”

Evaluate this statement. In your answer you should:

- Refer to Christian teaching
- Give detailed arguments to support this statement
- Give detailed arguments to support a different point of view
- Reach a justified conclusion

12 Marks

2. “The most important duty of the Church is to help people in need.”

Evaluate this statement. In your answer you should:

- Refer to Christian teaching
- Give detailed arguments to support this statement
- Give detailed arguments to support a different point of view
- Reach a justified conclusion

12 Marks