

The Revolution March (February) 1917

7 th March	Workers at the P_____ steelworks in Petrograd went on s_____ followed by workers in other f_____
8 th March	Striking workers joined thousands of w_____ in a demonstration to mark I_____ Women's day. They were demanding b_____
10 th March	250000 w_____ were now on strike. The C_____ refused to attack a procession of strikers
11 th March	The President of the D_____ sent a telegram to the T_____ telling him how bad the situation was.
12 th March	Soldiers in Petrograd m_____ and joined the protesters in the s_____
12 th March	The Duma set up a P_____ G_____ to take control.
12 th March	The r_____ set up the Petrograd S_____ (a council of soldiers and workers) and took over control of f_____ supplies to the city
14 th March	The Army G_____ tell Nicholas he does not have their support. N_____ tried to return to Petrograd by t_____
15 th March	The train was s_____ by revolutionaries and Nicholas a_____ in favour of his brother, Grand Duke Michael, who r_____ to take over

Nicholas	bread	train	Government	Cossacks	Putilov
strike	revolutionaries		Soviet	Tsar	women factories	abdicated		Provisional	Duma	refused workers	International		Generals	mutinied	strike stopped

CHALLENGE:

Which do you think was the most significant event of the revolution? Highlight it and explain why it was important.