

Beyond mainstream medicine questions

Answer the following questions in full sentences so that you are able to make a consolidation resource from your notes. Use pages 70-71 to answer the questions.

1. Give some examples of diseases that we now have vaccines for
2. What causes anti-biotic resistance?
3. What is the name of the superbug that does not respond to anti-biotics?
4. What diseases are doctors not able to cure?
5. What is alternative medicine?
6. Why has alternative medicine become popular?
7. What is complementary medicine?
8. Explain what 'positive health is'
9. In what ways are people trying to prevent diseases?
10. Why might some medical professionals oppose alternative medicine?
11. Why might 1 in 10 doctors promote it?
12. Create a spider diagram about the different types of alternative/complementary medicine similar to the one on p71

Developments in medicine and treatment since 1945

Answer the following questions using the timeline that has been scanned in for you.

1. Read through the timeline
2. What are the 3 most important developments?
3. Explain why you have chosen these
4. Have you chosen one from each colour? (i.e. one purple, one orange, one green) – if you had to do this what would you change?
5. Where on the timeline can you see the following factors in action: Find one example of each:
Government / technology / war / individuals / communication
6. Which factor do you think has been the most important and why?