

	Sentence starters / structure
Paragraph 1	Introduction – brief overview of what you don't believe followed by what you intend to argue.
Paragraph 2 FOR	Some people would agree / disagree because ...(explain point) This is supported by / when (give a religious belief / quotations) To a greater / lesser extent this is a strong / weak argument because (explain why) However, despite this....
Paragraph 3 FOR	Another reason to agree / disagree with this statement.. / Secondly / Many ____ believe that this is a strong /weak statement because...(make your point) This is supported by /An example to illustrate this would be when... To a greater / lesser extent this is a strong / weak argument because (explain why) However, despite this....
Paragraph 4 Against	However many Muslims / Christians / others may disagree / agree because..(make your point) Example to support your point To a greater / lesser extent this is a strong / weak argument because (explain why) Nevertheless / Yet, despite this,....
Paragraph 5	A second reason people / Muslims / Christians may disagree (explain point) Support from text / creed / narrative To a greater / lesser extent this is a strong / weak argument because (explain why) Nevertheless / Yet, despite this,....

Conclusion

Overall, it can be argued that there are more reasons to believe / disbelieve this statement as (restate your points). Interestingly, the fact that _____ is further evidence that _____