Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Hounslow Music Service

This is a reminder that Hounslow Music Service offers instrumental and vocal tuition during the school day at Brentford School for Girls. All instrumental teaching staff are well-qualified, experienced musicians who have been subject to a safer recruitment process and an enhanced criminal record check. In addition, teachers are regularly observed and receive training throughout the year to help them maintain and develop their teaching skills.

Tuition is offered on a range of instruments, but we are currently looking for more violinists, vocalists, pianists, guitarists, drummers and woodwind players! Please see below for the fees for the Academic Year and information on how to book.
