

TRANSITION AND ATTACHMENT TO SECONDARY SCHOOL

The aim of the workshop is to provide parents with a good understanding of a positive transition to secondary school and the importance of attachment in adolescence and school as the second most important social network young people need to learn to work through.

This workshop highlights

- Some of the common challenges young people face during their transition to secondary school
- How parents can support their children by helping them develop the skills and attitude required to successfully manage secondary school.

Suitable for year 7 parents only.

To attend this workshop parents are requested to register using the below link:
